

New Port, New City – Gallery study

This gallery tells the story of how industrial Docklands declined and how it was re-developed in the late 20th century. These worksheets will help you focus on the main aspects of regeneration to help you with your studies.

1. Use the first part of the gallery to find 5 reasons why the docks declined.

-
-
-
-
-

2. What was the LDDC?

3. What problems did the Docklands area face?

4. What did the Local Government Planning and Land Act require the LDDC to do?

- A)
- B)
- C)
- D)

5. a) Draw a sketch map of the Urban Development Area administered by the LDDC. NB. Draw and label the Docks on your sketch.

6. How successful was the redevelopment scheme?

7. What were the strengths and weaknesses of the Enterprise Zone.

Strengths	Weaknesses

8. Why were A) London City Airport and B) DLR required?

A)

B)

9. How did new transport improvements affect local people and the way the area could be used?

11. How did the LDDC resolve problems with transport developments?

12. What was the Canary Wharf proposal and development?

13. List the successes and failures of the development.

-
-
-
-
-
-

14. What was the housing like on the Isle of Dogs before redevelopment?

15. How much was owner-occupied in 1981?

How much was owned-occupied in 1991?

16. What problems were there with local housing in the late 1980's?

17. The LDDC faced many problems during the changes.

Find these 6 groups of people who experienced problems with the changes.

Record: a) Their point of view about the changes to Docklands, and
b) Their role in the developments

i. Coin Street Co-operative

ii. Docklands Forum

iii. Peter Wade

iv. Greater London Council

v. Department of the Environment

vi. Port of London Authority

18. Find out the following:

a) When the LDDC finished.

b). The overall cost.

19. Evaluate whether the work of the LDDC was successful overall.